

English Baroque Songs - I

1. Alas! When charming Sylvia's gone

Daniel Purcell

1. A - las!___ a - las!___ when charm - ing_ Syl - via's
2. Ah! me,___ ah! me,___ what pow'r___ can_ move me
3. Ah! no,___ ah! no,___ 'tis love;___ 'tis_ now_ too

6

gone, I sigh, I sigh, and think my - self un - so, I die I die with grief when she must plain; I feel, I feel, I feel the plea - sing

12

- done, I sigh, I sigh, and think my - self un - go: I die, I die with grief when she must pain; I feel, I feel, I feel the plea - sing

Source: Single sheet engraved by Thomas Cross, c.1700. Originally a major third higher, original time signature 31.

18

- done;
go:
pain:

But For when the I re - vive who ere love - ly at bright nymph is here, Syl - via's eyes, I'm I But

23

pleas'd, - yet smile, - wish'd, - yet I and I freeze, and long'd, and hope, - I pant, and was her prize. yet - I burn; Thought-less of Trans - ports so Gods! if the all sweet, tru - but - est - her - I - rove, Ah! Say, Oh! ah! say, oh!

28

33

tell me, can they, let her, tell me, can they, let her, tell me, can they, let her, is - to be by this - to friend - ship - by me not due? pro - fest.